Dear [redacted]

Reading this article in the Sunday Evening Star I could not resist of sending it to you though you may have read it also.

Mr. Hoover is an excellent man for catching communists but his department is just unsuited to do something against it.

First was Stalin the big menace. Now Kruschew and behind them ~~Kalinin~~ Molotow and Gromyko who know the West and its strength and weakness have decided to follow more our way, now they are even a greater menace.

Now the Committee has asked 39 educators and writers, etc., who were never been able to do anything against Stalin to do something against something far more delicate than Stalin.

Mr. Hoover said that we have to refocus our sights, but all these fellows have always missed the ONLY invitation Mr. Marx invited them too, tackling communism from a scientific point of view.

Nevermind what these fellows will write I bet my hat that Dunnewolt and I can do better. Only we will not have the purse of Uncle Sam behind us. On the other hand we may have millions of people interested in something which can prevent them from being vaporized and after all that is some stimulant. Even for people who make a lot of money on communism.

Respectfully yours,

B.G.H. Vanderjagt.

A symposium released by the House Committee on Un-American Activities yesterday warns that the new Soviet campaign of anti-Stalinism presents a menace to the free world greater than Stalinism itself.

The new Russian leaders, who have denounced the dead dictator, were described as still pursuing his goal of world domination but by subtler methods—seeking to lull, divide and undermine the free nations.

The committee asked 39 educators, writers, veterans' organization leaders, labor union heads, ex-Communists and others to write their views on anti-Stalinism and the recent 20th congress of the Soviet Communist Party.

Warns of Soviet Smile

In a summation at the end of the booklet, entitled "The Great Pretense," J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said:

"When the Communist smirk begins to change to a smile, as is the case right now, we would be well advised to refocus our sights. Behind those changing spots, the same bad blood still flows through the leopard's veins."

In a foreword, Representative Walter, Democrat of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee, said the Stalin purge is all the more dangerous because of the confusion and deception which it engenders.

Three Major Conclusions

The committee said the writers of the symposium stood together on three major conclusions:

1. The current policy and tactics of the Soviet Union present the greatest danger ever to confront the West.

2. The developments in the Soviet Union are a reflection of growing strength and confidence rather than weakness.

does not denote any abandonment of the messianic Soviet program of universal conquest.
